Used Kwik copy to get legal documents printed on a tight timeline. Kwik Kopy were very accomodating, and even delivered the documents for us, and let us know once they arrived. They are always incredibly helpful, particularly Justin, and their correspondence is very professional and clear. Couldn't recommend them enough!

The team at KK Exhibition street delivered above and beyond for me in record time. When we had an online, low res, very poor quality document we needed printing, they helped in every way they could and within such a short time frame. The team were helpful, professional and friendly - what more could you need? I will always have KK Exhibition St as my go-to.

Kwik Kopy regularly produce great DL flyers for our gallery. Their work is accurate and very fast. We send a file, they deliver a bundle of flyers with great reliability. We have a very good relationship. They help our activities immensely.

Fast response

13/11/2019

The email response and turnaround time frame was great and flawless. Overall a usable end product. However the end result meant the printed wording was slightly hard to read. This may not be Kwik Kopy's fault, but being the print experts I wished there was some warning that the file and print as it is may result in some of the wording being hard to read.

A great personalised experience

14/05/2019

I've very recently engaged with Kwik Kopy at the base of the Telstra Corporate offices at Exhibition St, and I was pleasantly surprised by the level of service and flexibility of the team. Nav was extremely helpful in explaining a handful of options for our printing request and kept in touch to ensure that our team had visibility of an order that was under some pretty tight deadlines!

Extremely helpful and efficient service

16/04/2019

As many customers know, one of the most stressful aspects of printing publications is getting the printing job completed under tight pressures and dealing with unexpected dilemmas. The helpfulness and promptness of the Kwik Kopy staff enabled me to get the publications printed and delivered on time, and at a top quality standard. The staff showed a genuine and personal understanding of my printing job needs and circumstances - I wasn't just another customer on the list. They were very willing to spend time with me to help tailor the printing files to deliver the best possible outcome. I am very grateful for their patience and assistance and would recommend them 100%.
