Great Service

We called several companies looking for advice and a quote for a large print order. Kwik Kopy got straight back to us and within 15 or so minutes we had our quote and advice we were looking for. Non of the others followed up on our initial inquiry. When we gave them the go ahead, they we quick to get back to us with proofs. Turnaround of the whole job was within expectations and best of all they delivered to our office, broken down into the batches we had requested and shrink wrapped. Great Service

Excellant Service

5/04/2017

My company required express, professional printing of documentation that then needed to be put together in files with multiple tabs in both A4 and A3 and then onforwarded to our client via courier by your staff. All information had to be sent to Kwik Kopy via a web transfer , due to our location, your staff then put together the files as required and had them couriered to our client. This was done professionally in a very small time frame. We were very happy with the service we recieved.

Super fast, friendly service and quality product

I recently needed some flyers re-printed in a real hurry. I rang Kwik Kopy in the afternoon and asked whether they would be able to reprint my flyers and deliver the same day. Not only was this possible, but they remembered me and the original print job. It was a very easy process - sending them the file, paying online and then waiting for my flyers to be delivered. Really fast, professional and streamlined service.
