Price and Service

21/07/2016

Our business have being using the same printing company since we started 12 years ago . With so much competition out there, we recently decided we would get quotes from other printing suppliers and compare. We were blown away by the price differences from one supplier to the other. Kwik Kopy Stafford got back to us straight away with a well priced quote and one on one service. We continued a few times to get quotes for more printing jobs after that initial time and each time Kwik Kopy Stafford have beaten every quote. Needless to say we don't use our previous printing company anymore and all our printing jobs are now being quoted and completed by Kwik Kopy Stafford.

Above and Beyond Attitude to Old Fashioned Service

10/01/2016

I was 7 months pregnant and holding a three day seminar. My last minute printing needs were mucked up by our business's printers stalling the morning of the first day of the seminar. A quick call to Stan and he was able to have them all printed off and delivered within a two hour window. His willingness to help me out at short notice took so much pressure off me that I was able to focus on the seminar and composing myself before the arrival of the attendees. My business has entrusted Stan with printing our manuals for 5 years or so and we have never been disappointed. If anything he strives to surprise us each and every time. Thank you Stan!
